DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-4, drawn to a fuel injector having three distinct apertures, classified in class 60, subclass 742.
 - II. Claims 5-7, drawn to a combustor having at least one fuel injector injecting a liquid fuel and a gaseous fuel, classified in class 60, subclass 39.465.
 - III. Claims 8-12, drawn to a method of fueling a gas turbine engine with a liquid fuel and an additional liquid fuel that a portion of it is vaporized, classified in class 60, subclass 776.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I, II and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the method as claimed can be practiced: a) with reference to group I, with multiple injectors having a single aperture each; b) with reference to group II, the apparatus can be used with a gaseous fuel, as distinguished from the method step that requires to vaporize the liquid fuel.
3. Inventions II and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the apparatus can be practiced with multiple injectors each having only two apertures. The subcombination has separate utility such as an injector for a combustor fed with a liquid fuel, a gaseous fuel, and steam, each one of said fluids being fed separately through one of the three distinct apertures.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. As a courtesy to the Applicant, the Examiner notes that in claim 8, l. 5, it is not clear which fuel is the antecedent for "said fuel"; it can be "the fuel" of l. 3 but also the "additional fuel" of l. 4. Correction is required.

6. A telephone call was made to William Slate on 1/24/2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Ehud Gartenberg whose telephone number is 571 272 4828. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday.
